VOLUME 4
GROWING PENTECOSTALS

A RECONCILED PEOPLE – A
Pentecostal Study of Living in Harmony with God and People

A Reconciled People...

In this fourth volume of the "Growing Pentecostal Disciples" series, Pentecostal exegete and theologian, French Arrington shows the way to true harmonious relationships with God and people!

In Week One he provides believers with a detailed, practical, and thoroughly scriptural study of biblical reconciliation, what it really is, and the crying need for it in the church and the world today. Arrington, in Week Two explores the relationship between being spiritually reconciled and actually being a reconciler as well as living the "reconciled life." In Week Three hindrances to reconciliation such as personal differences, bias, unfairness, hard-heartedness, -- even to the point of families being torn apart, are explored and explained. Finally, Week Four reveals the path and life of reconciliation as exemplified through repentance, forgiveness, loving communication, restoration, and ultimately the renewal of true harmony with others and with God. This volume will not only give practical insight into having genuine relational harmony, but also in how to be a reconciled reconciler yourself!
